Consent Matters Checklist

1. Talk to the patient about their goals and what they want.
2. Explain what you plan to do.
3. Be clear and use plain language. Explain the risks, benefits and alternatives.
4. Give the patient time to think and answer any questions they have. Consent can be withdrawn at any time.
5. Make sure you know whether the patient understands what is expected of them.

www.collegept.org/rules-and-resources/consent